ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The following documents include details of the roles and responsibilities of those involved in standards development, as well as how to play an active role in the process.

- My ISO Job
- Getting Started toolkits

DIRECTIVES AND POLICIES

The ISO/IEC Directives define the basic procedures to be followed in the development of International Standards and other publications.

Other policies (such as the Patent Policy or the Policy on Global Relevance) contain guiding principles for standards development

For questions on the ISO/IEC Directives please contact directives@iso.org.

IT TOOLS FOR STANDARDS DEVELOPMENT

This section contains details on all IT Tools that help support the standards development process.

For questions about IT tools, contact helpdesk@iso.org

FORMS, MODEL AGENDAS AND STANDARD LETTERS

This section contains the forms, model agendas and standard letters that may be needed when developing standards. More information on the documents needed at each stage can be found in the Developing Standards section.

ISO Helpdesk Knowledge Base

ITツールオンラインマニュアル(スライド64参照)

The screenshot shows the ISO website's header with navigation links: Standards, About us, News, Taking part, and Store. Below the header, there is a section titled 'ISO ELECTRONIC APPLICATIONS' with a list of services. A red box highlights the 'Access Electronic Applications' button at the bottom of the list. Another red box highlights the 'HELP AND SUPPORT' section, specifically the 'HELPDESK KNOWLEDGE BASE' link. A third red box highlights the 'Access Electronic Applications' button again, with a red arrow pointing to it from the 'Access Electronic Applications' link in the list.

We have a number of IT Tools that help support the standards development process.

ISO ELECTRONIC APPLICATIONS

ISO's Electronic Applications can all be accessed under our central login portal login.iso.org

Electronic Applications include:

- Event Notification
- Electronic Balloting
- Global Directory
- ISOTC Server (eCommittees)
- Meeting management
- Project Portal
- Submission Interface
- National Mirror Committees

The screenshot shows the ISO login interface. At the top, it says 'Sign in using your ISO credentials'. Below this are two input fields: 'Username' and 'Password', both highlighted with a red rectangular box. Under the password field is a checkbox with a checkmark, which is circled in red. The text next to the checkbox reads: 'I have read and accept the declaration on copyright and data protection for participants in ISO activities.' Below the checkbox is a blue 'Sign in' button. In the center, there is a horizontal line with 'OR' in the middle. Below this, it says 'Sign in using your credentials from another organization'. Underneath is a box containing the 'ISO ID' logo and the text 'Single Sign On Federation', which is also highlighted with a red rectangular box. At the bottom of the page, there are three links: 'I forgot my password' (with a key icon), 'I don't have an account yet' (with a person icon), and 'Contact helpdesk' (with a headset icon).
