The relevant Minister and the Japanese Industrial Standards Committee are not responsible for identifying the patent right, application for a patent after opening to the public, utility model right or application for registration of utility model after opening to the public which have the said technical properties.

Packaging—Environmental terminology

Introduction

This Japanese Industrial standard was established in 2008.

In addition, no corresponding International Standard has been established at present.

1 Scope

This Standard specifies main terms relating to environmentally conscious packaging.

NOTE : Annex A shows relationships between main general terms of environmentally conscious packaging for information.

2 Classification

The classification of terms shall be as follows.

- a) General terms of environmentally conscious packaging
- b) Packaging materials
  - 1) Concerning to paper and cardboard
  - 2) Concerning to plastics
  - 3) Glasses, metals, etc.

3 Terms and definitions

The terms and definitions shall be as follows.

In addition, their corresponding English terms are shown for information.

NOTE : If two or more terms are put down in one column of the term, the preceding term shall be preferentially used in the disclosed order. In addition, a term in parentheses shall not be used as far as possible.
